Harry Hohmeister

Member of the Executive Board & Chief Commercial Officer
Network Airlines

Harry Hohmeister, born on 19 April 1964, has been a Member of the Executive Board of Deutsche Lufthansa AG since July 2013. As Chief Commercial Officer Network Airlines he is responsible for steering the commercial management of the premium network carriers Lufthansa, SWISS and Austrian Airlines and coordinating the hubs of these airlines.

Harry Hohmeister has spent the bulk of his professional career with the Lufthansa Group, which he joined in 1985. He was initially responsible for the planning and development of the fleet and the flight planning for Europe and later assisted in reorganizing the company's distribution and marketing division as part of a broader corporate restructuring. He further went on to serve as Vice President Network Planning in 1996. Afterwards, he joined Thomas Cook Airlines, and held various executive management functions in Germany, Belgium and the UK for over five years. Mr. Hohmeister then joined the Management Board of Swiss International Air Lines AG as Head of Network & Alliance Management in 2005. He subsequently took charge of the company's global distribution activities as a member of the management team for Network and Alliance Management, and later also for Global Sales. In 2009 he was appointed CEO of Swiss International Air Lines AG. As of 2013, he was in parallel responsible for Group Airlines, Logistic and IT in the Lufthansa Group as Executive Board Member until 31 December 2015.

Harry Hohmeister is a member of the Board of Directors of Swiss International Air Lines AG and Chairman of the Austrian Airlines and Lufthansa Group Cargo AG Supervisory Board. Since 2009, he has been a Member of the Board of Governors of the International Air Transport Association (IATA), the air transport industry's umbrella organization.

Harry Hohmeister holds a diploma in commercial air transport and he is a German citizen.
